Regarding: Congressional

Message:

Districts are set up to make sure a fair and realistic representation of different areas in each state. They aren't created to lean one way or another and to favor one political party over another. The current 2025 redistricting agenda is purely political and only intended to represent a particular population which defeats the whole purpose of congressional districts in the first place. I am not in favor of this and I believe it should wait until the allowed time after the decennial census.
