Subject: Veterans Demand Fair Maps — We Didn't Fight for a Rigged Democracy

Dear Committee Members,

My name is Vaughn Mathias, and I am a USAF Viet Nam era Veteran, now living in Austin, Texas. I gave years of my life in service to this country. What I fought for was the right to vote, to participate, and to be counted equally — not a rigged system where politicians pick their voters. What's happening in this redistricting process is a betrayal of those values. Texans — especially veterans, rural families, and working-class people — deserve fair maps that reflect our communities and protect our voices.

We are watching. Veterans across Texas are organizing to hold this process accountable. You swore an oath to the Constitution, just like I did. I'm asking you to honor that oath. Draw maps that are fair, transparent, and inclusive. No more political games.
