Message:

As a concerned Texan, I strongly oppose any redistricting efforts that undermine fair representation. Gerrymandering threatens our democracy by silencing communities and weakens the power of voters. Redistricting must not be used to consolidate political power—it should reflect the true makeup and will of all Texans. I urge the legislature and redistricting committees to reject any maps that disenfranchise voters and instead commit to a transparent, fair, and accountable process. Texas belongs to everyone, not just those in power.
