Message:

I'm deeply disturbed by the blatant redistricting efforts being made by Trump and Abbott, as well as every single lemming who is following their cheating lead. I have been a long-standing Republican, but the recent actions by shameless leadership has prompted me to change my voting habits in a drastic manner. Please know that I will make every effort to encourage friends, family, strangers, my children, and my children's children to never vote republican again in this state. You are clearly cheating at what should be a fair game, and this makes me ashamed to have ever put my faith in this party. Don't do it. Leave district lines alone until it's the correct time, and then propose redistricting in a way that actually represents the people in the areas. I hope you cannot sleep at night, I hope you wonder what will happen when you reach the pearly gates, I hope you have to answer for all the ways you have acted.
