Senator Joan Huffman Files Senate Bill 552 to Prevent Illegal Aliens from Being Eligible for Probation

AUSTIN - Today, Senator Joan Huffman filed Senate Bill 552, which aims to enhance public safety for Texas residents by making individuals classified as "illegal aliens," as defined by the bill, ineligible for judge-ordered or jury-recommended community supervision, including deferred adjudication community supervision.

"This session we have an opportunity to pass meaningful legislation that will help our law enforcement and judicial system make Texas safer," said Huffman. "This bill is not just about enforcing immigration laws; it's about protecting our communities. By ensuring that those who have broken both our immigration and criminal laws face full accountability, we are taking a firm stand for the safety and security of all Texans."

(Senator Joan Huffman represents District 17, which is comprised of Colorado, Jackson, Matagorda, and Wharton counties and portions of Brazoria, Fort Bend, Harris, and Waller counties. Huffman currently serves as Chair of the Senate Committee on Finance, Chair of the Senate Special Committee on Redistricting, and as a senior member of the Senate Committee on Criminal Justice and the Legislative Budget Board.
