State Senator Pete Flores Swears into Office for the 88th Legislature

AUSTIN, TEXAS - Today at the Texas State Capitol, Pete Flores (R-Pleasanton) took the oath of office at the swearing in ceremony to begin the 88th Legislative Session and released the following statement:

“I am honored to have the trust of the great people of Senate District 24. I look forward to getting back to unfinished business and working with my constituents on issues that leave Texas a better place to live and work. The values and priorities of Senate District 24 will remain my focus, and I am eager to learn more from my constituents and be a strong voice for SD-24 in Austin.”

After 27 years as a State Peace Officer and a term as State Senator, Senator Flores has long been a servant to the State and people of Texas. Senate District 24 is comprised of the following 13 counties: Atascosa (partial), Bandera, Bell, Burnet, Coryell, Gillespie, Kerr, Kimble, Lampasas, Llano, Medina, Sutton, and Williamson (partial).

During the 88th Legislative Session, Senator Flores is committed to protecting and strengthening Texas law enforcement, securing the southern border, lowering property taxes, and preserving the values of Texas.
