State Senator José Menéndez Invites Public to the Third of Four 86th Legislative Session Briefings - with Special Guests

San Antonio, Texas - State Senator José Menéndez invites the Senate District 26 community to attend the third of four public briefings to provide an overview of the 86th Legislative Session. This legislative summary will include a recap of the issues discussed by lawmakers, and a wrap-up of session results.

Among special guest attendees is District 121 State Representative Steve Allison who will be available to speak about his legislative initiatives which includes school safety, bullying, cyberbullying, and suicide prevention.

Sen. Menéndez will be answering questions from the audience and providing handouts of his legislative initiatives. He will also ask participants to provide suggested ideas for interim charges in preparation for the next 87th legislative session taking place in 2021.

The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.
