AUSTIN, TX - Senator Morgan LaMantia (D-South Padre Island) issued the following statement regarding the honorary recognition of a delegation of women leaders from Cameron County.

"I am truly honored to have the opportunity to connect with so many talented, bright, and inspiring women from Cameron County. I want to express my deepest gratitude to all those who traveled to Austin to be here for this recognition. Your presence and support mean the world to me.

I am grateful to witness the thriving empowerment of women throughout our district. It is a testament to the unwavering resilience and strength of our community, and it fills me with a great sense of pride. We must strive to uplift and recognize the incredible achievements of all the communities within our Senate District 27 - across counties, school districts, and cities - because at our core, we are one united entity. Let us harness the power of our collective spirit and stand united in our pursuit of progress and equality. Thank you again, and I look forward to what we will achieve together!"

Senator LaMantia was joined by several exceptional women leaders on the Senate floor, including Border Patrol Chief Gloria Chavez, HHSC Inspector General Sylvia Hernandez-Kauffman, Point Isabel ISD Superintendent Theresa Alarcon Capistran, Harlingen Mayor Norma Sepulveda, and Cameron County CAL #5 Judge Estela Chavez-Vasquez. Esteemed women leaders from Brownsville ISD, Los Fresnos City Council, Point Isabel ISD, South Padre Island PD, City of Primera, and Cameron County joined this momentous celebration from the Senate Gallery.
