Senator César J. Blanco Files 106 Bills for the 88th Texas Legislature

Austin, Texas – The bill filing deadline was today for the 88th Texas Legislative Session. Senator César J. Blanco (Senate District 29) filed 106 pieces of legislation.

Senator Blanco's legislation focuses on:

- Providing economic security to working families, including tax relief for all Texans;
- Delivering quality healthcare closer to home;
- Investing in clean drinking water and wastewater infrastructure for our rural communities;
- Keeping our kids & communities safe from gun violence;
- Strengthening our public schools and supporting our teachers;
- Promoting reliable and renewable energy to provide energy security and lower energy costs; and,
- Creating good-paying jobs and economic development, including for Aerospace, Defense, and Advanced Manufacturing.

Senator Blanco issued the following statement:

“I am proud to file these bills on behalf of all the families and communities of El Paso and Far West Texas. These bills focus on the kitchen-table issues our families care about and will help pave a brighter future for all Texans. I look forward to passing these bills to make El Paso and Far West Texas a better place to live, work, raise a family, and do business.”
